ESD NEWS

Professor Richard Larson has received an IBM Faculty Award. IBM grants these cash awards annually to foster collaboration between researchers at leading universities worldwide and those in IBM research, development and services organizations. Read more about this award here: http://www.ibm.com/developerworks/university/facultyawards/.

Roberto Perez-Franco (M.Eng. in Logistics and Supply Chain Management ’04; ESD PhD ’10) has been selected as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons of Panama, in the area of Academic Achievements, by the Junior Chamber International. (Only one of the ten awards is given in the academic area.) There will be a ceremony in Panama on September 27th.
